

ICC AND USCIB CUSTOMS & TRADE FACILITATION SYMPOSIUM

FINDING SOLUTIONS TO CROSS-BORDER CHALLENGES

Limiting cross-border friction is increasingly vital to smooth the flow of trade and boost competitiveness for all business, especially for small and medium sized businesses and emerging industry sectors. This conference brings business, government, international organizations and operational customs and trade experts together from the world over for an important dialogue on the most effective means to ease the movement of goods and services between countries along supply chains.

FEBRUARY 22-24, 2015
FOUR SEASONS HOTEL
MIAMI, FLORIDA

TOPICS WILL INCLUDE:

- WTO Trade Facilitation Agreement: implementation and challenges
- Best regional practices and global cooperation on global value chains, single window initiatives, de minimis, intellectual property rights and operational objectives
- Balancing security and trade facilitation

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

Kristin Isabelli, Director, Customs and Trade Facilitation
United States Council for International Business
Tel: 202.371.9235 Mobile 202.714.1987
kisabelli@uscib.org / www.uscib.org

FOR SPONSORSHIP INFORMATION

Abby Shapiro, SVP Business Development
United States Council for International Business (USCIB)
Tel: +1 212.703.5064 Mobile 617.515.8492
ashapiro@uscib.org / www.uscib.org