

SUZANNE ULICNY
Deputy Director, Arbitration & ADR/North America
International Court of Arbitration®

Suzanne Ulicny serves as deputy director of arbitration and ADR in North America for ICC's International Court of Arbitration. In this capacity, she advises North American attorneys and companies on all phases of ICC dispute resolution services, including arbitration, ADR, pre-arbitral referee proceedings, expertise proceedings and ICC Dispute Boards.

Ms. Ulicny began her career as a criminal prosecuting attorney for the County of Wayne in Detroit, Michigan. She later served as an associate with Dewey & LeBoeuf LLP in New York, with a focus on securities offerings, capital markets transactions, and mergers and acquisitions.

Ms. Ulicny holds a bachelor's degree in international relations and economics from Michigan State University. She attended law school at Loyola University Chicago and obtained an LL.M. specialization in international business and trade law from Fordham University School of Law. Ms. Ulicny is admitted to the New York bar and the Michigan bar.

More on ICC Dispute Resolution services